

2010-2013 International Graduate Student Workshop Exchange
University of Notre Dame ↔ Bielefeld University

Transnational Approaches in Graduate Research
Notre Dame, April 25-29, 2013

Sponsored by the Department of History, University of Notre Dame; the Bielefeld Graduate School in History and Sociology and the Centre for German and European Studies, Universität Bielefeld.

Papers due by April 7. Please email papers, in Adobe PDF format, to westrate.1@nd.edu

Accommodations: Arrival: April 25; departure: April 29 (Inn at St. Mary's, 53993 Indiana 933, South Bend, IN 46637, <http://www.innatsaintmarys.com/>).
Bus schedule and ticket information from O'Hare International Airport, Chicago to Notre Dame Campus: <http://www.coachusa.com/ss.tickets.asp>

Place: University of Notre Dame, College of Arts and Letters,

Organizers: Patrick Griffin, Semion Lyandres, Mike Westrate (University of Notre Dame)
Dietmar Wulff, Stephan Merl, Levke Harders, Andreas Vasilache, Chiara Pierobon (Universität Bielefeld)

TH, April 25

Arrival of Participants from Germany

FRI, April 26

First Plenary Session – Chair: Stephan Merl (Bielefeld)
(202 McKenna Hall)

9:00-9:15

Welcoming Remarks: Angelika Epple (Bielefeld), Patrick Griffin (UND)

9:15-10:15

Monica Bykowski (UND, History)
“Articulating Freedom: How Serfs Learned to Write about Freedom”

10:15-11:15

Nathan Gerth (UND, History)
“‘The Second Most Beautiful City in the Empire’: Catherine the Great’s Reconstruction of Tver’ and the Creation of Enlightened Urban Space in the Russian Provinces”

11:15-11:30

Coffee Break

11:30-12:30

Mike Westrate (UND, History)
“‘That’s Women’s Work!’: Possibilities and Realities for Women in Late Soviet and Post-Soviet Kharkiv, Ukraine”

12:30-14:00

Lunch

Second Plenary Session – Chair: Dietmar Wulff (Bielefeld)
(202 McKenna Hall)

14:00-14:30

Keynote: Malte Griesse (Bielefeld):
“Revolts in Early-Modern Europe: Vicissitudes of Commemoration and Diverging Political Cultures”

14:45-15:45

Sebastian Teupe (Bielefeld, History)
“Concepts of Competition in Historical Perspective. Comparing Germany and the United States”

15:45-16:00

Coffee Break

16:00-17:00

Andrew Hansen (UND, History)
“Christian Historicism? Friedrich August Tholuck and Vormärz Historiography”

17:00-18:00

Stephen Morgan (UND, History)
“Between Revolt and Retaliation: The Role of Rhenish Missionaries in the Herero Genocide”

SAT, April 27

Excursion (Chicago, Illinois)

Note that Chicago is in a different time zone (CST) from South Bend (EST). It is one hour earlier (9:00 am EST, in South Bend, is 8:00 am CST in Chicago)

9:00 EST	Leave Inn at St. Mary's for Chicago, park at 111 E. Wacker
11:00-12:30 CST	Architecture Foundation Riverboat Tour (hosted by UND)
13:00-14:00 CST	Lunch at Pizzeria Due (hosted by UND)
14:00-17:45 CST	Free time in Chicago (smaller informal tours led by UND folks)
17:45 CST	Meet group in front of parking garage at 111 E. Wacker; please do NOT be late!
18:00 CST	Leave Chicago for South Bend
21:00 EST	Arrive Inn at St. Mary's

SUN, April 28

Third Plenary Session – Chair: Martina Cucchiara (Bluffton University)
(202 McKenna Hall)

8:45-9:15 Keynote: Frank Wolff (University of Osnabrück),
“The Emergence of the New Diaspora during the Interwar Period: Toward a Global History of East European Jews”

9:30-10:30 Jessica Lumsden (UND, History)
“Revealing the Conspiracy Behind the Conspiracy: William Carleton’s Fictional Representations of Ribbionism”

10:30-11:30 Robert Costello Palermo (UND, History)
“Ideologies and State Formation in Post Revolutionary Mexico: The Catholic Right and the Spanish Civil War, 1930–1939”

11:30-11:45 Coffee Break

11:45-12:45 Alexander Zalajnov (Bielefeld, History)
“‘The Butcher of Paris’: How did Carl-Albrecht Oberg become Chief of the SS and Police in occupied France and how independent was his Action?”

12:45-14:30 Lunch

Fourth Plenary Session – Chair: Angelika Epple (Bielefeld)
(202 McKenna Hall)

14:30-15:30 Ole Puetz (Bielefeld, Sociology)
“The Inner Workings of Social Movements: An Analysis of Strategic Potentials from an Ethnographic Perspective”

15:30-15:45 Coffee Break

15:45-16:45 Goetz Herrmann (Bielefeld, Sociology)
“Which Society must be defended? Security, Freedom and the European Union’s approach towards Integrated Border Management”

16:45-17:15 Final Discussion

18:00 Dinner (Fiddler’s Hearth Restaurant, hosted by UND, downtown South Bend)

MON, April 29

Departure of Participants