Transportation

Arrival

Santos Dumont (SDU) and Galeão (GIG) Airports

To make your arrival easier, here are some useful informations about the city's airports.

Santos Dumont Airport (SDU) is located in downtown Rio, approximately 10 km from Botafogo, offering a panoramic view of Guanabara Bay during landing. Ideal for domestic flights, it is known for its convenience and proximity to major hotels and tourist attractions. SDU operates from 5 AM to 11 PM.

On the other hand, Antônio Carlos Jobim International Airport (GIG), also known as Galeão Airport, is located on Governador Island, about 20 km from Botafogo. Galeão is the main hub for international flights. GIG operates 24/7.

Both airports are well-served by transportation options such as taxis, ride-sharing services (Uber, 99, and Taxi.Rio), and public transportation, ensuring a smooth arrival at our conference. In addition to its prime location, SDU also features the VLT (Light Rail), which connects the airport to Rio's downtown, the subway, and the Novo Rio bus station.

Ride-Sharing App Services

SDU x Botafogo

- Regular Taxi = R$ 50 ($10)
- Uber = R$ 40 ($8)
- 99 = R$ 20 ($4)

GIG X Botafogo

- Regular Taxi = R$ 80 ($15)
- Uber = R$ 60 ($11)
- 99 = R$ 60 ($11)

Ride-sharing services and taxis are easily found throughout the South Zone of Rio de Janeiro.

Transportation

Subway

The Rio de Janeiro subway is a fast and efficient way to get around, especially in the south side. The city is served by subway lines 1 (orange) and 2 (green). For traveling within the south side and downtown, a good option to avoid transfers is to take Line 1 (orange), which covers most south side neighborhoods, downtown, as well as the neighborhoods of Tijuca and Barra da Tijuca within a few minutes.

The South Side stations include the neighborhoods of Flamengo, Botafogo, Copacabana, Ipanema, and Leblon. The stations are safe, clean, and well-signposted.

From the Botafogo station, you can arrive at Fundação Casa de Rui Barbosa in just 4 minutes by walking along Rua São Clemente. To get to IESP-UERJ, it takes about 13 minutes by foot via Rua Voluntários da Pátria.

Subway operating hours

Monday to Saturdays: 5 AM to 11 PM
Sundays and Holidays: 7 AM to 11 PM

The VLT (Light Rail Vehicle) primarily operates in downtown, but it is useful for connections from Santos Dumont Airport and the bus station. The VLT integrates with the subway and buses.

While public transportation is generally safe, it's always good to keep an eye on your belongings, especially during peak hours and in crowded areas.

Prefer to check your route inside the metro station.
